

Clean Beach Treatment System

for Safer Swimming

Clean Beach Treatment System is a chemical-free process that creates an in-situ swimming pool. The system provides safe, clean water for users and minimizes beach closings due to algae and E. coli.

A five-sided barrier creates an "enclosure" of the swimming area. Beach water is pumped to an onshore facility which filters and returns clean water. Since deployment, no beach closings have been issued.

Before Treatment

After Treatment

Water from Clean Beach Treatment System

Treatment Locations

Dirty Water - Outside Enclosure

Clean Water - Inside Enclosure